MANNA FOOD PANTRY

Hunger is a growing problem throughout the United States and in our own neighborhoods.

One in six Pennsylvania residents struggles with hunger—they are our neighbors, our co-workers, and our friends—often their struggles go unheard.

Manna Food Pantry, a joint mission of Penbrook United Church of Christ and Penbrook Church of God, serves individuals who need a helping hand in zip codes 17103, 17104 and 17109. In addition to the adults that we serve, our Power Pack program reaches children ages 5 to 17.

The pantry, located at 56 Banks Street, in Penbrook, is open every Thursday evening, from 6:00 until 8:00.
